Supporting Anti-Bullying Week 2020

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

Hello, I am the new District Commander for the Aylsham Safer Neighbourhood Team. Prior to joining the police, I had a successful career as an Epidemiologist at Warwick University. I began my policing journey in West Midlands Police, and joined Norfolk Constabulary in 2014. I have been lucky to have enjoyed a variety of roles in both forces, from response, local neighbourhood officer, Police Support Unit, the policing review team and my latest role as the Staff officer to CC Bailey and DCC Sanford.

I joined to be a detective but my career diverted me very early on, as I enjoyed putting on my riot gear. I am very proud to put my uniform on each day that identifies me as an officer. I never joined to get promoted and am frequently surprised at my achievements thus far! I enjoy working, supporting and inspiring the new officers coming through. I am passionate about fairness and making a difference, especially with the lives of young people. I proudly work as one of the cadet leaders, trying to guide the next generation into making the right choices.

I am very honoured and proud to be the new District Commander for Aylsham and the surrounding villages. I enjoy working as a team, and I have a very good team of officers whom support me and make sure you are safe. I look forward to serving you and working with you to make sure that the district remains a lovely place to work and live in.

Stay Safe

Inspector Kerry Woodbine
