Message from Inspector Rob Wicks

I hope that you all had a fun and eventful Halloween and Bonfire evenings. From a Policing perspective both passed with little incident. This year all the Broadland Beat managers were deployed on Halloween with bags of sweets, to engage with young person's enjoying the evening and providing advice to any groups who were becoming involved in any ASB.

As we head into winter the earlier onset of darkness and can lead to an increase in criminal behaviour, please ensure that you lock windows and doors when you are away from your house, business or outbuildings. The winter period often also leads to an increase in lead being stolen from church roofs, should you note any suspicious behaviour please call 101 or in an emergency 999.

What is happening in your area. PC Colin Bailey

During October I have been out on patrol and have been fortunate enough to attend several public engagements, including the High Sheriffs Justice Parade at Norwich Cathedral and the Marriott's Way 10 k Run between Aylsham and Reepham.

Now the clocks have gone back, and the temperature has dropped, I see less people when I am out on patrol. Everyone is at home keeping warm and dry! Please take the time to check on your neighbours, who may not have any other contact that day, as a few minute chat and a smile may just make their day. The colder weather and darker nights can be a very lonely period for some.

As always, keep me updated with any community events, I will endeavour to get to as many as possible. I can be contacted by email on: Colin.Bailey@norfolk.pnn.police.uk.

For your information the SNT Reepham e-mail box, along with all the other SNT's, is not monitored for crime or incident recording purposes. If any issues of this nature occur can I ask that you report to Police on the non-emergency telephone number of 101, or 999 in an emergency.

Incidents can also be reported on the Norfolk Police web page: www.norfolk.police.uk/contact-us/reportit This will ensure that all reported incidents are recorded, and dealt with accordingly.

Crime information and statistics for your area can be found on the internet by using policeuk website You can also keep up to date with us by following us on Twitter and Facebook, details below
