Message from Inspector Rob Wicks

“Welcome to this month’s newsletter. This month we will be looking to recruit two beat managers for the Hellesdon, Horsford and Spixworth area. Recognising that Broadland will increase in housing and population within the NDR this will provide great community policing. Crime and anti-social behaviour remain low and there has been a significant down turn in the business premises burglaries written about in last month’s newsletter. My team have been very proactive in their policing, targeting vulnerable premises and focussing on disruption of persons believed involved in criminality. In the event you witness any suspicious behaviour please contact us either by dialling 101 or in an emergency 999. If you would like to join us as a Special Constable or Volunteer and become part of our team then I would be interested to hear from you. We value the contributions that those within the community can offer in whatever capacity. Thank you for your ongoing support.”

Broadland Engagement Officer PC Vicky Bailey

Part of my role as an Engagement Officers within the Broadland district is to act as a facilitator and a co-ordinator to engage with local communities and identify the Key Individual Networks. This is to enable the identification of matters that could bring rise to community tension, whether that be through crime or events.

I would be interested in any up and coming events due to be held this summer that would benefit police attendance weather as a visible presence or as part of the event where the special constabulary or the Police cadets could facilitate.

What is happening in your area. PC Colin Bailey

Over the past few weeks I have been carrying out high visibility patrols in the area. This includes recreational grounds and public spaces. Unfortunately I have had to deal with a couple of low level offences whilst patrolling these areas. Hopefully my visible presence in the area will deter further offences being committed.

I have also been fortunate enough to attend 'the great sausage bash' in Aylsham and the Reepham food festival. Both events were very well attended and gave me chance to engage with lots of members of the public.

The general feedback I received from the public during these events was that they felt safe whilst living in the area and did not have any major issues to relay to me. This was very pleasing, and hopefully, our visible presence and engagement with the public is being well received by all.
